

LITERACY PARTNERS

Are you looking for a way to share your love of writing with a young parent returning to school?

LEADERSHIP, EDUCATION, AND PARENTING (LEAP)

Writing Partners

Work one-on-one with a young parent who is returning to school in LEAP, an 8-week High School Equivalence and college transition program that provides social emotional learning support for parents and their children. At a time that works for both of you, you will coach a student through the writing process for academic and personal writing.

What:

- Work 1:1 with a student weekly on Zoom
- Kick-off meeting with overview of writing process
- On demand support from program manager
- WhatsApp Writing Partners group with materials

Who:

- No educational experience required
- Be at least 18 years old and consent to background check
- Willingness to commit weekly to 1:1 coaching sessions
- Comfort using Zoom to connect with students
- Ability to coach students using a process-based approach to writing
- Committed to educational equity and social justice
- Patient and willing to put the student's needs first

Where:

- Zoom, email, or WhatsApp
- Weekly 30-minute remote session at a time that works for both you and the student
